Higher Education Development Project- Strengthening HEI Management Development: Graduate Scholarship

I. Objectives

The main objectives of the Management Development Program (MDP) are: (a) to create widespread awareness of the relationship between the quality of senior/middle-level management and the quality of HEI's performance; and (b) to give senior/middle-level managers appropriate incentives and opportunities to access high-quality and relevant Management Development Programs in order to strengthen their capacity as leaders of both public and private HEIs.

The HEI Management Development Program (HEIMDP) seeks to build the capacity of HEIs managers in both public and private institutions.

Components/Coverage

The scholarship grants are for:

- Diploma
- Masters
- Ph.D. Degrees

in Business Management and Administration and other fields related to the scholars' work area of specialization, offered by identified delivering higher education institutions (DHEIs).

The scholarship shall cover actual tuition and other fees, stipend, book allowance, transportation assistance, and thesis/dissertation grant.

The HEI Management Development scholars shall be expected to continue serving in their respective institutions while on part time study and after completion of the degree.

II. GRADUATE DEGREE

Coverage

The programs shall be undertaken on campus and/or via distance learning on a full time/part time basis in HEIs that are:

- Centers of Excellence
 - Centers of Development
 - Level III accredited
 - Rated Very Good in the CHED-FAPE Evaluation of Graduate Education Program (EGEP)
- for Ph.D./Masters in priority fields
